JOE NETWORK

The career network designed by economists—for economists.

The AEA's Job Openings for Economists (JOE) Network is the preferred hiring tool for the economics job market, matching qualified candidates with relevant economics positions at leading institutions.

Job Seekers

Showcase your profile to hundreds of hiring managers and quickly apply to open positions. The JOE Network allows you to securely request reference letters and share job market materials.

Employers

Target search requirements to locate your preferred candidates, set up hiring committee access, and easily manage job postings and applications.

Reference Letter Writers

Fulfill reference requests with customized letters, assign proxies, and easily monitor task completion.

Use the JOE Network as your comprehensive tool for the economics job market!

EconTrack, the AEA's job market information board, allows job candidates to keep track of the status of open positions, such as the dates on which invitations are sent and fly-outs or offers are issued. All employers are welcome to participate. JOE employers can easily add a position in EconTrack as they are placing the listing in JOE.
