Disclosure Statement: David Autor

"The Contribution of the Minimum Wage to U.S. Wage Inequality over Three Decades: A Reassessment"

March 23, 2015

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

   I have received no financial or grant support or funding from interested parties for this research.

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

   I list below all parties from which I have received $10K+ in the last three years. I do not think that any of these entities is an "interested party" but I am erring on the side of completeness:

   a. American Economic Association
   b. National Bureau of Economic Research
   c. Government of Singapore, Ministry of Trade and Industry
   d. Rimrock Capital Management
   e. Third Way (non-profit)
   f. The Gates Foundation
   g. ThompsonReuters
   h. National Science Foundation
   i. Sloan Foundation
   j. Lincoln Institute for Land Policy

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A "relevant" organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

   a. Associate Department Head, MIT Department of Economics
   b. Co-Director, MIT School Effectiveness and Inequality Initiative
   c. Associate Director, NBER Disability Research Consortium (funded by the Social Security Administration)
   d. Editor, Journal of Economic Perspectives (2009 - 2014)

e. Executive Committee, American Economic Association
f. Executive Committee, Society of Labor Economists
g. The Urban Institute, Board member and trustee
h. Member, Social Security Advisory Board, Technical Panel on Methods and Assumptions

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

Significant financial support received by spouse, Marika Tatsutani:

The Bipartisan Policy Center

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No party had the right to review the paper prior to circulation.