Heidi Williams Disclosure Statement

(1) As detailed in the opening footnote, this paper received financial support from several sources:

a) Neubauer Family (Oster)
b) NIA Grant Number T32-AG000186 to the National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER) (Williams)
c) National Science Foundation (NSF) CAREER Grant Number 1151497 (Williams)

(2) In addition to the sources listed above, over the past three years I have received more than $10,000 in research funding from the National Institute on Aging (NIA) and the NIH Common Fund, Office of the NIH Director, through Grant U01-AG046708 to the NBER; the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation (through their Sloan Fellowship program); the Kauffman Foundation (through their Junior Faculty Fellowship in Entrepreneurship program); the NBER Innovation Policy and the Economy program; the Hoover Institution's IP^2 program; and from NIA Grant Number R03AG043041 to the NBER.

(3) I do not have any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of a relevant non-profit organization or profit-making entity.

(4) None of my partners or close relatives have relevant disclosures.

(5) No party had the right to review the submitted paper.

Our project received IRB approval from the NBER Institutional Review Board.