Disclosure statement for Eric Verhoogen and the paper “Mark-up and Cost Dispersion across Firms: Direct Evidence from Producer Surveys in Pakistan”

This project received funding from the International Growth Centre(IGC), a research consortium based at the London School of Economics and Oxford University and funded by the Department for International Development, the U.K. aid agency. The author has been employed on a part-time basis as a Research Program Director (RPD) of the IGC, first as co-RPD of the IGC Trade Program and now as an RPD of the IGC Firm Capabilities Program. The author declares that he has no other relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.

We sought and obtained IRB clearance from our relevant institutions at the time of the study (Yale IRB Approval #1109009047; Columbia IRB Approval #AAAI7550.)