Disclosure Statement for "Do Poverty Traps Exist?"

David McKenzie

I received no outside sources of financial support for this paper. In the past three years I have received grants from the World Bank, 3ie, DFID, and the Templeton Foundation. Any of these may be construed as having an interest in this research, even though this particular project was not funded through their grants. I am not an officer, director, or board member of any organization. Neither my wife nor children have any interests to disclose.No other party had the right to review the manuscript